It is revealed that the 1st accused Tr.T.Kumar, S/o.Thangavel entered into Government Service on 01.09.1989 as Assistant Section Officer, Municipal Administration and Water Supply Department (MA&WS Dept.,) at Chennai. Thereafter, he was promoted as Municipal Commissioner and served at various places and lastly as Commissioner, Vellore City Municipal Corporation. He is a public servant as defined U/s 2(c) of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988. The 2nd accused Tmt.K.Amutha is the wife of the 1st accused and she is depending on the 1st accused and is a home maker.

It is revealed that the A1 had acquired and in possession of properties and pecuniary resources disproportionate to his known sources of income and hence the check period is fixed between 01.04.2008 and 31.03.2013.

It is revealed that the A1 was in possession of properties to the tune of Rs.8,44,560/-, in his and in the name of his wife A2 as on 01.04.2008, i.e., at the commencement of the said check period and had been in possession of properties to the tune of Rs.53,24,549/- in his and in the name A2 as 31.03.2013 i.e., at the end of the said check period.

It is revealed that the Alreceived lawful sources of income (in the form of Salary, arrears, advances and allowances etc., from the Government) to the tune of Rs. 31,43,386/-, during the said check period and has incurred expenses (in the form of family expenses, EB charges, Educational expenses and other expenses) to the tune of Rs.10,47,795/-, during the said check period.

It is revealed that the likely savings of the A1 has been calculated to the tune of Rs.20,95,591/- (Rs.31,43,386/- [being the total income he earned during the check period] (less) Rs.10,47,795/- [being the total expenditure, he incurred during the check period = Rs.20,95,591/-] only as surplus fund and would have properties to the tune of Rs.20,95,591/- only during the check period, by making use of the said surplus fund Rs. Rs.20,95,591/-.

It is revealed that the A1 acquired properties and resources in his name and in the name of A2 to the tune of Rs.44,79,989/- during the said check period.

It is revealed that the Alacquired disproportionate assets in his name and in the name of A2 to the tune of Rs.23,84,398/-(Rs.44,79,989/- [being the total assets acquired during the check period] (less) Rs.20,95,591/- [being the likely savings] = Rs.23,84,398/- [being the disproportionate assets} in excess of the possible quantum.

Thus, it is further revealed that the A1 and his wife A2 who has abetted the A1 by lending her name and facilitated the A1 to acquire pecuniary resources and properties and both A1 and A2 were found in possession during the check period between 01.04.2008 and 31.03.2013, of pecuniary resources and properties to the tune of Rs.23,84,398/disproportionate to the known sources of income.

It is further revealed that there are grounds to reasonably suspect that the A1 and A2 are in possession of properties and pecuniary resources which are disproportionate to their known sources of income and if a thorough investigation is made it will bring the remaining properties if any and will unearth the real facts.

The above information discloses suspicion of commission of a cognizable offence punishable U/s 13(1)(e) r/w 13(2) of the P.C. Act 1988 and Section 13(1)(b) r/w 13(2) of the Prevention of Corruption (Amendment) Act, 2018.
